Summer Term 2008

Newsletter No 8: JUNE 27th

Marle Hall: I enjoyed my visit to Marle Hall earlier in the week. The children are having a really good time and their behaviour is a credit to themselves, their parents and their school. They are meeting challenges with confidence and enjoyment. I am sure that you are all looking forward to seeing them all on Friday evening. They will be leaving Marle Hall after tea tonight at approximately 6.30pm and expect to be back in Warton at around 10.15pm. Please ring Mrs. Haley Potts on 01827 331533 between 7.30pm and 8.30pm to have the estimated time of arrival confirmed.

Friends of Warton School

We still need you! Please contact Mrs. Day, Mrs. Carter or Mrs. Parker if you are able to help in any way with the Summer Fayre on Saturday 12th July from 1.30pm to 4pm. (Helpers arrive in the morning to help set everything up) Everyone is welcome to be a member of the Friends of Warton School. The more parents who help the easier it is for everyone. All money raised is for the benefit of all children in the school to enrich their learning and support extra activities.

Maypole Dancers: We will need to practice the dances again for the School Fayre on the 12th July. I will speak to the dancers and arrange time after school when the majority of children are able to practice. Information will be sent home when we have agreed a time.
